Services next Sunday, morning and evening, at St. Paul's church, Ironton. The Holy Communion will be celebrated at the 11:00 o'clock service. Evening service at 8:00 o'clock.

Wedding on Lawn at Arcadia, Mo.

(From the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.) Miss Blanche Turner's wedding to Kelton E. White, which will be celebrated on the afternoon of June 9, at "Hillside," the Turner country place in Arcadia, Mo., will be one of the prettiest affairs of the summer.

The ceremony will take place on the lawn and a summer house will be converted into a background of vines and flowers for the temporary altar. The decorations will be entirely in daisies, which grow in abundance in June.

The bride's four nieces will be her attendants. Miss Blanche Turner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Volantine C. Turner, who was a debutante last winter, will be maid of honor and the two younger daughters, Misses Mary Soudard Turner and Beatrice Turner, and Miss Marie Clarkson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Palmer Clarkson, will be bridesmaids.

They are to wear white frocks with touches of green, green slippers and hose, and carry daisies.

A number of relatives and friends will occupy a Pullman attached to the Sunshine Special, which leaves St. Louis at 9 o'clock in the morning. The car will be parked and the guests will make their headquarters aboard and return to St. Louis in the afternoon.

Other guests are planning to motor down. The distance is 89 miles, and it takes about four hours by train and five or six by motor.

Miss Turner is the daughter of Mrs. John W. Turner. Her father was the late Gen. Turner.

Two of her brothers, Capt. Soudard Turner, who has just passed his examinations for his majority, and Capt. George E. Turner, will be unable to be present at the wedding, as Capt. Turner is en route for San Antonio and Maj. Turner who has entirely recovered his health at Fort Bayard, has been ordered to El Paso.

Annapolis News.

We have had plenty of rain the past week.

Some one made a play ground of Gus Funk's wheat field in block nine of the town of Annapolis last night. Better look out, boys. The law prohibiting trespassing may be invoked.

Mrs. Ben Francis came up last night from Arkansas, where she has been making her home the past eight months. She tells me the negroes down there are all going to register, and are willing to go to the front, if necessary.

Quite a number from Annapolis went to Mineral Point Sunday to see the damage wrought by the cyclone that almost destroyed that town Wednesday afternoon of last week. They found houses turned topsy turvey, the bark blown off of trees and general devastation. We pity the people in the cyclone's path, and hope none will ever visit our little town of Annapolis, as we have neither property nor people to spare.

The concrete men who have been at work on the railroad bridge south of town for several weeks past, have finished their labors and gone. The other men who have been employed there will leave this week.

Nim Brewer of Bear Branch is in town to-day expecting the arrival of his two daughters, who have been living in Arizona for two years past. Cost of living is high but not as high yet as it was in civil war times. M. Pogue of Redford is loading out 7 cars of large pine timber to-day. Gus Funk has some fine wheat.

ALABAMA MINSTRELS GIVE FINE SHOW.

One of the best shows that has visited Deming in many months was staged at the opera house Wednesday evening when the Alabama minstrels played a return engagement. The house was fairly well filled, and but for the inclement weather, there would probably have been a much larger audience.

From beginning to end, the show sparkled with real comedy, the work of Watts being particularly good. The special acts were all high class, among those most worthy of mention being Hi Henry Hunt, contortionist and fire eater; Arthur Prince, juggler and hoop roller, and Watts in his act of smoking three cigars at once.

The show is under the management of C. L. Erickson, who takes pride in putting on the best he can find in the line of dark-skinned talent.—Deming News, Deming, N. Mex.

All the talk now-a-days is about the storms. War talk is not the topic of interest just now. On Sunday, May 27th, two boys of the West End, Jack Minor aged 13, and his nephew, Archie Minor aged 12, were instantly killed by lightning. A large number of friends gathered at the cemetery to attend the burial of the two boys. Both coffins were lowered into the grave. Oh, it was piti-

The people of Goodland are raising a fund for the relief of the injured on East Fork.

Mrs. B. C. Love will return home shortly from a week's visit in St. Louis. Her daughter, Mrs. Alice Webb, and children will accompany her for a short stay at the old home. Mrs. Nan Stevens of Bellevue lately spent a few days with her brother, W. H. Smith, at Goodland. Mr. and Mrs. Sol Nelson, of Brule, visited their daughters at Goodland and Redmondville last week. Then and now. What is it? Two yoke of oxen pulling an automobile at East End the other day. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Larue are going back to Crawford county to live with their daughter. Well, next thing is Registration. TIMOTHY HAY.

We have certainly been having some fine rains. There were no Decoration exercises at the graveyard here on account of the rain. A heavy hail storm passed through here Wednesday evening, but it did not do much damage. A tornado passed through the county about ten miles northwest of here. Several houses and barns were blown down. One old lady was killed and several more seriously hurt. The contents of the houses blown down were a total loss.

Our Sunday School is progressing nicely. Our average attendance is 50. Ray Payne is visiting home folk. He was accompanied home by Mrs. M. H. Scott of Leadwood.

Fred Gilliam, who was running a side edger at Evans Bros.' saw mill, got two of his fingers cut off and two more split open.

J. F. Irvin and Walter Shy, of East End, attended court at Centerville last week.

Dr. H. Rammung is back home for a short time.

Martin Bros. are running their saw mill most of the time.

Sol Nelson, wife and granddaughter, of Brule, visited relatives here part of last week.

Coleman Miner and son, of Edgehill, were here Wednesday. L. W. S. June 3, 1917.

Have had quite a little rain since my last writing.

Most of the spring has been cool and corn is not coming up well. Many acres of corn have been plowed up and planted over.

Jackson Miner, age 15, and Archie Miner, 12, were both killed by lightning Sunday afternoon, May 27. The boys were playing in a barn lot and the lightning struck the barn, killing both boys and injuring another. A cow and calf, valued at $80 were killed, also. Jackson Miner is the son of Cyrus B. Miner and Archie Miner is a grandson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Miner. We can certainly sympathize with the bereaved parents.

A number of folks from this vicinity are attending court in Centerville this week.

Mr. John Stuart and Miss Ida Day are attending the teachers' training school in Ironton.

Mrs. George Bay and daughter, Miss Goldie, of Oates, visited her sister, Mrs. Henry Hutchings, Sunday and Sunday night.

Mr. Wilbur Dodson spent Saturday night and Sunday at Moss.

Rev. Jas. Radford preached at the Elm Spring schoolhouse Sunday.

John Arismom is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Fannie Holmes is on the sick list.

Mr. John Stuart will teach the Bixby school this year.

Miss Letha Bay will go to Centerville Thursday to take the teachers' examination Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. S. H. Dodson spent the latter part of the week on Bill's Creek.

News has been received from Detroit, Mich., stating the death of Miss Lillie Taylor. Miss Taylor left here one month ago with her mother and sister, Miss Mai, to make their home in Detroit. It is with sorrow that we learn of her death. Miss Lillie was only fifteen years old. She is well known here and has many friends. A mother and a loving sister survive her. She will be sadly missed by them.

Mrs. Esther Martin is still seriously ill with heart trouble.

Joe Brooks of Boss is very ill with dropsy. ANGELO.

Lots of rain the past week. A terrible cyclone last Wednesday, but no damage done or lives lost in this vicinity, though buildings were wrecked and bruised not very far away. Our sympathy goes out to them.

Sunday School was well attended to-day. The Bible Class read and commented on the eighth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. Question given out last Sunday was: Wherein and when do we come in contact with the Cleansing Blood of Jesus Christ? Please read Romans 6. Question for next Sunday: Is Sunday the first day of the week? Let us study to show ourselves approved unto God, workmen that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

We understand Bro. Ben Dennis will preach for us again next Sunday. He is almost blind, doesn't know a letter in the book, but if you don't believe he knows some Bible, come and see. He preached for us last second Sunday. The house was well filled. At the close of the discourse while the congregation sang an invitation song, Quincy Thompson of Brule came forward and enlisted as "a volunteer for Jesus." We went from the house to the water where Bro. Sam Crocker baptised him. May he and all of us "add to our faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge, temperance, and to temperance patience, and to patience godliness, and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness charity, is the prayer of the writer.

We need more young men and women too, who are willing to give their lives to Jesus. If you, dear reader, are not a Christian, will you think for a moment what it means to be lost; take God at His word as revealed in the New Testament and Scriptures and accept Christ as your Savior now.
